hovering on the brink of death a ninety two year old woman recounts three stages of her painful life earning a pulitzer and three best play awards for 1994 edward albee has in three tall women created a masterwork of modern theater as an imperious acerbic old woman lies dying she is tended by two other women and visited by a young man albee s frank dialogue about everything from incontinence to infidelity portrays aging without sentimentality his scenes are charged with wit pain and laughter and his observations tell us about forgiveness reconciliation and our own fates but it is his probing portrait of the three women that reveals albee s genius separate characters on stage in the first act yet actually the same everywoman at different ages in the second act these tall women lay bare the truths of our lives how we live how we love what we settle for and how we die edward albee has given theatergoers critics and students of drama reason to rejoice presents the script of the 1994 pulitzer prize winning drama that illuminates the events of a ninety two year old woman s life while she lies in a stroke induced coma new york magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the new york herald tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country with award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating new york as both a place and an idea this volume documents the life and works of the acclaimed playwright edward albee his first four plays were all produced off broadway from 1960 1961 creating buzz that he was an up and coming avant garde playwright but his most notable accomplishment came a year later with his first full length play who s afraid of virginia woolf his plays were linked with the philosophies of the european absurdist beckett and ionesco and the american traditional social criticism of arthur miller tennessee williams and eugene o neill intended to serve as a quick reference guide and an exhaustive resource this collection includes play synopses and critical overviews production histories and credits and locator suggestions on unpublished archival material and lists of texts anthologies that have published albee s material the two secondary bibliographies contained within are fully annotated chronologically and alphabetically with the year of publication presenting a fuller sense of albee s playwriting career from the angry young man who wrote who s afraid of virginia woolf in 1962 determined to expose the emptiness of american experience to tiny alice which reveals his indebtedness to samuel beckett and eugene ionesco s theatre of the absurd edward albee s varied work makes it difficult to label him precisely bruce mann and his contributors approach albee as an innovator in theatrical form filling a critical gap in theatrical scholarship
